AETNA CHEMICAL PLANT A TOTAL WRECK WITH EVERY OCCUPANT OF BUILDING INJURED OR KILLED

FORCE OF EXPLOSION ROCKS TOWN OF OAKDALE AND BREAKS GLASS IN NEIGHBORING TOWNS

DEAD MAY TOTAL MORE THAN 200

Pittsburgh, May 18.—More than 500 war workers were killed or injured this afternoon when a terrific blast of T. N. T. wrecked the plant of the Aetna Chemical Company at Oakdale near here. Casualty figures at 1:33 p. m. placed the dead at 170 and the injured at 400. The dead and injured were thrown over a wide radius at the scene of the explosion. Scores were so badly hurt that wheelbarrows, hand cars, and even children's express wagons were commandeered to take them to the score or more of first aid stations quickly established in drug stores, physicians offices and residences thrown open.

Fire attacked the debris immediately after the blast and threatened to wipe the plant out entirely. Rescue parties worked feverishly in their efforts to save many bodies from incineration. Two cars of physicians and nurses from Pittsburgh were rushed here on special train within an hour after the plant went up.

The blast of the powerful explosive blew the main part of the building skyward and broke every window in Oakdale. Several surrounding towns, including McDonald, were rocked by the explosion. Early reports said that not a single worker escaped death or injury. Beyond the fact that a large quantity of trinitrotoluol blew up nothing was known of the explosion or its cause.

Officials said that an inquiry will be launched immediately but that there is little hope of learning much about the blast.

METHODISTS WORKING THRU 25,000 CHURCHES

The National War Council of the Methodist Episcopal Church cooperates with the Federal Council of the Churches and the Y. M. C. A., in order that there will be no duplication of effort. Through its 25,000 churches in the United States war work teams have been organized that stand ready to cooperate with the Government in all war service.

The Rev. John C. Benson, executive secretary of the National War Council of the Methodist Episcopal Church, stated that the fundamental aims of the council were twofold. "First," he said, "we interpret Methodism to the Government; that is, we show the Government by actual accomplishment what Methodism does patriotically. For instance, when the call came for field glasses this appeal was emphasized to our 25,000 churches, who responded by forwarding field glasses to the Navy Department. Secondly, we interpret the Government to Methodism, by explaining the war problems of the Government to our people, and by distributing all information helpful to the Government to help win the war. The aim of Methodism is not to organize new agencies but to strengthen those already existing, that they may be most efficient."

In the communities adjacent to the camps and cantonments special women workers have been placed on duty to direct the welfare work among the young women of the community where the need is recognized. Every Methodist church will hold a patriotic

RUSSEL FLEGAL HAS BEEN GASSED

H. J. Flegal received a letter a noon today from his son Russell Flegal, who is a member of Co. 74, Sixth Regiment, United States Marines, with the American Expeditionary Forces in France, which conveyed the intelligence that he was a patient in Base Hospital No. 15 suffering from the effects of having been gassed.

No details of the affair is given further than that the attack occurred after his company had served their time in the front line trenches and had been relieved and gone back to the third line.

He said he was suffering from burns and had got a little of the gas in his lungs, but that his condition was satisfactory and there was no occasion for undue worry or alarm. However, in this attack every member of his company suffered and many of them paid the extreme penalty.

The letter was written on April 26th after his condition was such as to allow him to write and it is likely the casualties were the result of the heavy gas attack against the Marines along about April 1st.

Some time during the month of May it which time war problems will be discussed and the church's service flag will be unveiled.

WOMEN'S COUNCIL NATIONAL DEFENSE HOLDS SESSION

Mrs. Roland D. Swoope, county chairman of the Woman's Council of National Defense of Clearfield county entertained the chairman and officers of the Woman's Liberty Loan committee of Clearfield county at luncheon at The Dinning hotel yesterday.

The luncheon was served in the private dining room of the hotel which manager and Mrs. McGinnis had decorated in a patriotic manner most attractively. Little paper baskets twined with red, white and blue and filled with candies were the souvenirs at each place.

Following the luncheon a business meeting was held. Mrs. Herbert A. Moore, of DuBois, county chairman of the Woman's Liberty Loan committee, presided and enthusiastic reports of the success of the Women's solicitation for the Third Liberty Loan were made.

The final total of subscriptions received as the result of their efforts was $1,819,500.

The women were highly complimentary upon the splendid work their solicitors were doing and the ardent patriotic spirit in which the work was done.

Those present were: Mrs. H. A. Moore, Mrs. George A. Long and Miss Louise Weber, of DuBois; Mrs. R. H. Summerville, of Winburne; Mrs. Brown, of Osceola; Mrs. Fletcher, of Mahaffey; Mrs. Hagerty, of Coalport; Mrs. George Zeigler of Philipsburg; Mrs. Maxwell of Morrisdale; Mrs. Roland D. Swoope; Mrs. J. L. Cutlin and Miss Ida Robinson of Curwensville and Mrs. Singleton Bell of this city.

AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

This is the opening of the great Red Cross drive for a hundred million dollars, and the services at the Presbyterian church tomorrow will be on the Red Cross. In the morning the pastor will preach a sermon on "The greatest mother in the world," and in the evening one of the aged speakers from abroad will deliver the address. Special music has been prepared for both services. You are cordially invited.

BISHOP McDOWELL NOTED PREACHER

Bishop McDowell who preaches at Trinity Methodist church, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock is one of the most noted and most popular men before the public today. His is a finished orator and delivered a lecture on "Preaching" at Yale university last year. He will lecture at the university of Pittsburgh next week. Clearfield people should take advantage of tomorrow's opportunity to hear this great preacher.

Mrs. Clyde Boigar and children of Moshanen arrived yesterday to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Beightol of Merrill street.

Mrs. Arch Davidson and little daughter of Curwensville were among the out of town shoppers here yesterday.

Mrs. Clayton McNaull of Curwensville was shopping in our city today.

BODY OF BROOKVILLE LAD FOUND IN BARN

A mysterious disappearance that has caused widespread excitement in Brookville and all over this section was partially solved yesterday just before noon when the dead body of Harry Henschel, aged ten years, was found concealed in a barn on the rear of the Henschel lot. The discovery was made at 11:45 o'clock by the father of the dead lad and his uncle. These two had been engaged in a diligent search since the young lad disappeared on Sunday and looked into the trunk as a last resort. The hatches of the trunk were fastened from the outside and there is every indication that the boy had been foully dealt with and the remains concealed in the trunk. The hair was matted and wet and the supposition is that he was first drowned and then the body carried to the barn, where it was concealed. The fact that the hatches of the trunk were fastened from the outside had led numerous searchers to pass it by during the past five days. The disappearance of the lad had caused great excitement and plans had been made in Brookville to close all stores yesterday afternoon and inaugurate a general search.

The finding of the body under the circumstances narrated above only serves to deepen the mystery in regard to the cause of the boy's death. A woman stated that she saw two boys, one chasing the other, go across her backyard on Sunday afternoon, and she believes that the one boy was Harry Henschel. This was the last seen of the lad until his body was discovered in the trunk.

BATTLE HEROES TO ADDRESS MEETINGS HERE TOMORROW

Chairman Snyder of the Clearfield Chapter American Red Cross has arranged a series of three meetings for tomorrow to be held at the High School, Trinity Methodist church and the Presbyterian church.

The speakers for these meetings will be men who have seen what a great need the Red Cross is meeting and overcoming in the war-torn countries overseas.

Charles E. Beury, one of the speakers has been over there for some time and will give the three audiences first hand information as to what the conditions are and what is being done by the Red Cross to better the conditions of the homeless French and Italians and in caring for the wounded of both armies.

Lieut. Hearst, who is the son of the Premier of Quebec is an aviator of note and has seen several years actual service in the Canadian Flying corps on the various battle fronts.

Both these men are in a position to tell the needs of the Red Cross and will put the bare facts right up to the three audiences.

The schedule of the meetings follows:

High School auditorium 3 p. m.

Trinity Methodist church at 7:30.

Presbyterian church at 7:30.

This will give everyone an opportunity to hear these men with their vital message.

It is expected that the speakers' schedule will be arranged so there will be no long waits during the evening meetings. While one of the men is speaking at one place the other will be speaking at another so that there will be no interruption excepting the short time necessary to switch the men.

Mrs. Roland D. Swoope and daughter Miss Mary Swoope of Curwensville were shopping in our stores today.

SLATE MAKING IS UNFAIR TO MANY CANDIDATES

As evidence that politics is just a little warmer than was at first supposed, thousands of cards have been circulated throughout the county during the last two days on which is a prepared slate or voter's guide reading as follows:

"Take this with you to the booth and vote for the straight Republicans below and you will not endorse the Brumbaugh, Vane Patton gang."

The ticket is headed by Mr. Sprout for governor and goes down through the list of state officers until congressman is reached where endorsement is given to Jones of Bradford county. Pidgeon of Houtzdale, Miller of Penn Township and Reay of DuBois are selected as legislators and Sweeney for county chairman.

Stewart Objects
Candidate C. Albert Stewart for the office of county chairman feels that an injustice has been done him by the parties responsible for getting out the card. The following statement was authorized by him when he was shown the card:

"This action was anticipated and is not in the least discouraging because the day is past when voters pay any heed to such methods but I consider it unfortunate that any members of the party should attempt in such a manner to inject partisan politics into the campaign at this time. While no mention is made of my name, there being only two candidates, the implication is that I am a Brumbaugh-Vane-Patton man. Those who know me personally throughout the county and those who have closely followed the political editorials written by me know that I have taken no part in factional politics and cannot be tainted up by fact or implication with any so called gang. Furthermore I have steadfastly refused to allow my name to be used in the making of any slate or in combination with any candidate or candidates. My candidacy is in the hands of the individual electorate and I will cheerfully abide by their decision. If elected, I want the support and good will of every Republican in the county and will solicit the counsel and advice of Republican leaders all over the county including those who oppose me at this time."

RED CROSS MEN MAP OUT PLANS

The members of the Soliciting Committee for next week's Second Red Cross War Fund drive met at Y. M. C. A. last evening and mapped out their plans for Monday and Tuesday's whirlwind campaign to raise Clearfield's share of the second one hundred millions to be raised.

The town has been subdivided and enough teams provided to guarantee a short snappy campaign, the purpose being to get the huge task over and done with in record breaking time.

Everybody is expected to contribute at least one day's pay to this worthy cause. The boys over there for whose welfare the money is being raised are giving every day to their task and are willing to give their very lives if necessary. What is the most extreme sacrifice we can make over here compared with that.

Make no excuse but contribute generously when the committee sees you next week. There must be no ladders now.

THAT RED CROSS PARADE TONIGHT

Every Clearfield citizen, eligible to do so, should participate in tonight's Red Cross parade. If you can possibly do so you should appear in the line-up, and you will very justly be styled a slacker if you fail to march on this occasion.

No American can be "too proud" to make this public display of his or her Americanism and demonstrate thereby that we are with our boys over there to the last man and the last dollar, if necessary. No sacrifice is too great for our brave boys bearing the battle's brunt on the war-torn battlefields of France and Belgium, surely in appreciation of this fact all our people will show their colors by parading tonight. It is not much of a sacrifice, but it is necessary here and now.

VERY LITTLE ACTIVITY ON BATTLE FRONTS; AMERICAN AIRFIGHTER WINS

BY ROBERT J. BENDER
Washington, May 18.—"America must prepare for further great sacrifices to meet the demands of the gigantic effort now assuming definite shape in the war government to frustrate the Teutonic decision to win the war."

This will be the message of President Wilson tonight when he opens the Red Cross drive in New York. With the serious situation facing all fronts as Germany pursues her ruthless persecution of conquered people in Russia and the Balkans, America is preparing for a mighty stroke before the close of the year. This great participation demands great sacrifices at home. The President will undoubtedly tell of the great preparations and at the same time assure that the nation stands ready to listen to honest professions of peace. Millions of dollars in advance contracts for all kinds of war needs are to be let in preparation for the great army of men expected to be in France before another twelve months. The President left Washington at ten o'clock yesterday morning for New York. He conferred with Col. House and laid before him the points to be covered in his expected discussion of international affairs.

Paris, May 18.—Violent artillery firing north and south of the Avre was reported by the French war office today. German raids failed north of Massiges and Four De Paris.

London, May 18.—There was considerable mutual artillery firing between Givenchy and Robecq last night, General Haig reported today. Hostile artillery was active in the Lens, Hazebrouck and Ypres sectors.

Washington, May 18.—Taking the air while awaiting the arrival of a French general with decorations for American flyers, Captain Peterson sent two German planes to destruction within a minute on May 16, today's official communique said. The machine came down in flames and the other crumpled as it fell.

The statement follows: "Section A—in Lorraine. Patrols were active and there was again an increase in the artillery fire. Otherwise the day was quiet at all points occupied by our troops. Section B—Particulars concerning the bringing down of hostile airplanes at noon on May 16, previously reported when aviators were awaiting for a French general who was coming to confer decorations are as follows:

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson at their home in Akron, Ohio, a daughter, Mrs. Wilson was formerly Miss Hazel Durt of this city.

Mrs. Dorsey Bailey of Curwensville was shopping in our city today. J. N. Smith of Ironton, attended to business in town yesterday.

While waiting Captain Peterson ascended and encountered two German planes and shot down both within one minute, firing 60 shots at the first and 15 at the second. The first burst into flames before hitting the ground and the wings of the second were seen to crumple as they fell to earth. No details concerning a third hostile plane were received. The airplane seen to fall within our lines north of Toul was probably shot down by hostile anti-aircraft guns.

CARNIVAL CLOSES TONIGHT

The carnival closes tonight. Don't miss the final opportunity of looking it over. They have a nice clean show and you will assist a worthy cause by your patronage. Following the big parade go with the crowd to the carnival grounds. Little recreation and innocent amusement is necessary for all.

100 PLANES DESTROYED

Rome, May 18.—The Allies' last 30 days have destroyed more than 100 enemy airplanes on the Italian front, it was officially announced today.

Mr. and Mrs. Ord Orcutt of Gramplan, were Clearfield business visitors today.

SNEAK THIEF MAKES HAUL

A sneak thief dropped into John W. Eberts feed mill in the alley just off Walnut street and between Second and Third streets at the noon hour yesterday and got away with more than $200. Only about $90 of the haul was in currency, however, the balance being checks. The thief made good his getaway without suspicion. Nothing was found to indicate that he had anything to do with the theft and he was released after being questioned as to his whereabouts at the noon hour.

THIRTY-NINE CASUALTIES REPORTED

Washington, May 18.—Thirty-nine casualties were reported in the list made public today. It includes 31 killed in action, 3 deaths from wounds, 5 wounded severely, 5 wounded slightly, 17 missing in action and 2 prisoners not previously reported missing. Heading the list was the name of Major Alexander Rasmussen, of Shewood, Ore.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson at their home in Akron, Ohio, a daughter, Mrs. Wilson was formerly Miss Hazel Durt of this city.

Mrs. Dorsey Bailey of Curwensville was shopping in our city today. J. N. Smith of Ironton, attended to business in town yesterday.

HELD UP OUR END

The final figures show that the nation put up over a billion more for the Third Liberty Loan than the amount called for. It is gratifying to note that Clearfield County and District put up in exact ratio with the balance of the nation. We were right there, dollar for dollar.

RESULTS IN DOUBT

On every hand one hears the question, "Who is going to be nominated for the various offices to be filled by the electors this year?" On every hand one hears the answer, "It's beyond me."

As time draws near for the final settlement of the arguments pro and con as the different candidates are effected it becomes more apparent that voters in every locality are going to stick close to home candidates for the Legislative and party tickets. Practically every candidate stands on a similar platform and it is only natural that preference in that case be shown for home men. This does not make the problem any easier to solve than if each man had considerable strength all over the country.

The age-old political trick of putting out cards having printed thereon a slate has been resorted to already but this form of campaigning is not taken seriously any more by the voters since the age of newspapers and individual thinking on the part of the voters. As a general rule voters cannot be influenced by a printed card having its birth in the locked closets of political tricksters and printed under oath of silence in the dark room of some obscure printing office. The source of the printed cards is, of course, known to those in close touch with politics and was anticipated because of their having appeared in past campaigns. This form of playing politics should be discarded. In the first place the cards are without authority. The voter does not know where they come from and immediately concludes that it would be unwise to support the hand picked slate of any person or persons. The voters will select their candidates through personal preference and will refuse to be led by such methods.

YOU HAVE LOANED, NOW GIVE

The Red Cross Drive starts on Monday and it is the patriotic duty of every man, woman and child to be amply prepared to go the limit when the solicitors call on them. The Red Cross affords the people an opportunity to give something in return for the sacrifices that are made in their behalf by the soldiers (DuBois Courier.)

Let no man think that he has done any real sacrificing service by buying Liberty Bonds as they are gilt edged securities which can be bought and sold, and will, ten years from now, be worth more than was paid for them. We are called upon now to give, not for the purpose of clothing soldiers or buying guns, but for the purpose of rendering aid and comfort to those who may fall on the battlefield. Before we gave until it hurt. The hurt has stopped hurting now. Start it hurting again. You will feel like a real American then.

Houtdale Pa. May 11, 1918
To the Republican Voters of Clearfield County

As the date of the Primary election approaches, I find that I will be unable to see each voter personally as I had intended, for the reason that as a half of my time has been given to the government in court for the last two years, I am unable to do so. I am a member of the Vigilance Committee of Houtdale borough, an organization which has for its object the duty in our present crisis that we should be done to all, and that no citizen should be played no matter what his position of influence. And in order that our boys in the trenches may have the full support of those at home I will, if elected, advocate a law that will compel every man who is physically fit, to go to work, go to the trenches and fight in person to jail.

I am in favor of and will support any good roads measure that will bring the greatest good to the greatest number. I believe in the abolition of the German language from the public schools, now and forever. Finally, I am a Republican, in fact and in all the time, but I am also with our President in any measure he may advocate to win the war. I am respectfully,

My Position on Vital Questions of Today
I have always lent my aid and influence in securing pensions for old and deserving soldiers and I have endeavored my friends to introduce and pass laws to increase pensions and better conditions for old and disabled soldiers and their families.
I am committed to no doctrine except that of square deal.
The vital questions of our national resources, our relations with foreign countries, the protection of American labor and industries, are grave national questions which I will defend in the light of a true American citizen.

An Announcement by The Miller Rubber Co.

ONLY one out of twenty-five applicants at the factory meets Miller standards. Uniform Tires can come in no other way than by rigid exactions—unwavering policies. Just so careful are we in choosing Miller Dealers. We want only those who reflect our ideals here. They must be capable of giving you exceptional service—just as Miller Tires are exceptional.

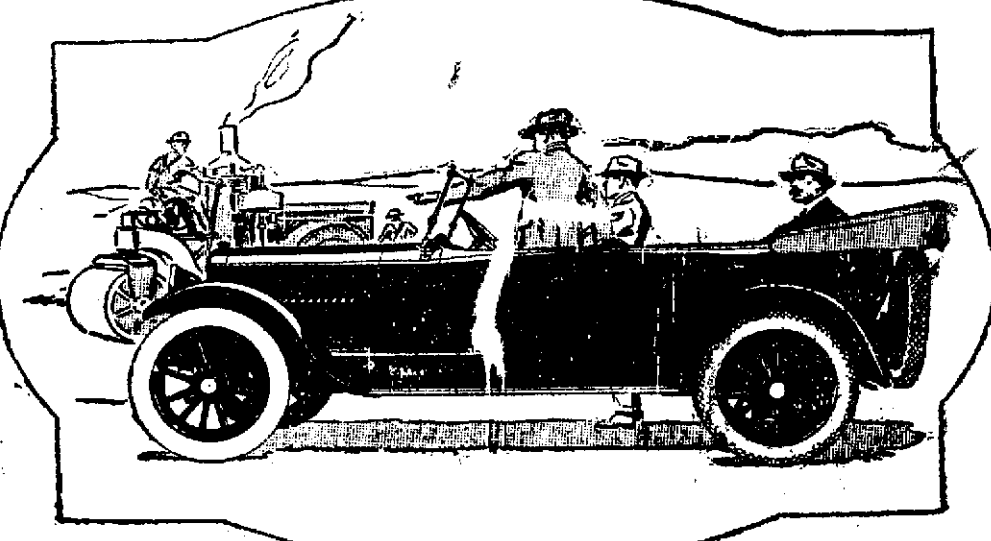

Uniform Tires—Geared-to-the-Road
Tires must vary as the men who build them vary. So uniform tires can be built by uniform men only. We solved this problem by training crack squads of tire builders. Each must meet exacting standards.
One Motorist in Fifty
Tires so uniform can never be produced where quantity output rules. Picked men are rare. If you multiply workmen you increase variables. So our production is necessarily limited. Only about one motorist in fifty can obtain Miller Tires this year.
If you want to be sure of securing Uniform Tires get a pair at once. Don't put it off. Our limited output compels us to limit a dealer's allotment each month.

And the tires this champion regiment builds—99 out of 100—wear the same under like conditions. Less than 1% ever needs adjustment.

PENTECOSTAL SERVICES AT THE LUTHERAN CHURCH

At the morning service at the English Lutheran Church, on Sunday, May 19th, the pastor will preach a special pentecostal sermon setting forth the office and work of the Holy Spirit. The choir will also furnish a special number for the occasion. Every member should be present, and all others who can are invited.
There will be no service in the Lutheran Church in the evening. The pastor and people will join with the Presbyterian and Methodists in the Red Cross services. Every person who is well enough and possibly can, should make an effort to hear the men sent here, either at the High School in the afternoon, or at the Trinity M. E. or the Presbyterian church in the evening.

DIED AT THE HOSPITAL

George Passmore, a resident of the Montgomery neighborhood, who had been seriously ill for some time passed away at the Clearfield hospital early yesterday morning. His funeral will occur Sunday afternoon. He was a member of the L. O. O. M. and that organization will attend the funeral.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lesson 7—Second Quarter, May 19, 1918.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES

Text of the Lesson, Mark 11:1-33—
Memory Verse, Mark 11:9—Golden
Text, Matt. 28:18—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

I cannot see any connection between this lesson and the title the committee have given to it, "Jesus Exercising Kingly Authority." for the day of the so-called triumphal entry was to him a day of weeping because of what he knew would come upon Jerusalem because of their rejection of him. What I do see is that as truly and literally as he fulfilled Zech. 9:9 so shall he fulfill Zech. 9:10, and then, but not till then, will he exercise Kingly authority. The story of Zaccheus, and of the anointing at Bethany, comes in between our last lesson and this one, and tells us of the salvation of a rich man, and of the beautifully simple faith and whole-hearted devotion of Mary of Bethany, and how the Lord provides an opportunity for those who seek one and are ready for it.

The story of the ass' colt shows how literally Scripture has been and will be fulfilled, and in what simple ways events long foretold are brought to pass in the fullness of time. The names of the two disciples are not given, for they were not so important as the colt on which the Messiah was to ride; but it is important to notice that they found the colt just as he had said they would, and it was all to fulfill Scriptures (vs. 4; Luke 19:32; Matt. 21:4, 5). Only in a seeming and transient way was it in any sense a triumphal entry as they cried his praises (vs. 7-10), for see in Luke 19:41-44, how he wept and why; and then see in Matt. 23:37-39, that the time will come when they shall say in reality, "Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord."

As he entered Jerusalem all the city was moved, saying "Who is this?" reminding us of the same question in Isa. 63:1; Jer. 30:21; and of the question of the disciples when he stilled the storm, "What manner of man is this that even the wind and the sea obey him?" (Mark 5:4). When we think of the millions of suffering ones today because of this awful war, and how he could heal them all and make wars to cease, how we should cry, Come, Lord Jesus!

He entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple, and the blind and the lame came to him and he healed them, and the children cried, "Hosanna to the Son of David." The chief priests and scribes were displeased, but he reminded them of Ps. 8:2, and left them, and at eventide went out into Bethany with the twelve, and lodged there (vs. 11, and Matt. 21:10-17).

In the morning as they returned to the city he was hungry, and coming to a fig tree which had plenty of leaves but no fruit, he said to it "No man eat fruit of thee hereafter forever, or literally unto the age (vs. 12-14). In Joel 1:7, he calls Israel his vine and his fig tree, and when he comes again that vine and fig tree shall bear much fruit according to Isa. 27:6.

Having entered the temple again, he cleansed it, as he had done at the beginning of his ministry (Jno. 2:13-17), and told them that they had made his house of prayer a den of thieves; and when it was evening he went out of the city again. In the day time he was teaching in the temple, and at night he went out and abode in the mount that is called the Mount of Olives (vs. 15-19; Luke 21:37, 38), and the people were attentive to hear him. Thus he spent the last week of his ministry, each day bringing him nearer to his great agony, but wholly forgetful of himself he taught them all that he could, as they were able to bear it with their awakened minds.

The next morning as they entered the city Peter called his attention to the fig tree which had withered away, and then he said some of his most wonderful words, which none of us seem fully to comprehend or act upon. Consider these words, "Have faith in God—whosoever shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass, he shall have whatsoever he saith. What things soever ye desire when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them." Twice in this connection he said, "I say unto you." The only conditions here seem to be that we forgive every one, have faith in God, and doubt not in our hearts. In John 14:13, 14, the conditions seem to be that we ask in his name, and that the Father may be glorified in him, which I understand to mean that we ask only on his business and never for any selfish ends. In I John 3:22 we read that "Whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight." There is surely a standard here that we should aim to measure up to, that we may glorify him by showing to others the riches of his grace at our disposal. (Lesson verses 20-26).

The right attitude seems to be that being redeemed and made his very own by his precious blood, we should be always, unreservedly and absolutely wholly for his pleasure—and this is most reasonable that he should be able to do what he will with his own. Lesson verses 27-33 teach us that not all questions of unbelievers need to be answered, and sometimes one question may be met by another.

James F. Turner of DuBois, candidate for member of the Democratic State Committee, was in Clearfield today in the interest of his candidacy.

DEAD MAY TOTAL MORE THAN 200

Pittsburgh, May 18.—More than 500 war workers were killed or injured this afternoon when a terrific blast of T. N. T. wrecked the plant of the Aetna Chemical Company at Oakdale near here. Casualty figures at 1:33 p. m. placed the dead at 170 and the injured at 400. The dead and injured were thrown over a wide radius at the scene of the explosion. Scores were so badly hurt that wheelbarrows, hand cars, and even children's express wagons were commandeered to take them to the score or more of first aid stations quickly established in drug stores, physicians offices and residences thrown open.

Fire attacked the debris immediately after the blast and threatened to wipe the plant out entirely. Rescue parties worked feverishly in their efforts to save many bodies from incineration. Two cars of physicians and nurses from Pittsburgh were rushed here on special train within an hour after the plant went up.

The blast of the powerful explosive blew the main part of the building skyward and broke every window in Oakdale. Several surrounding towns, including McDonald, were rocked by the explosion. Early reports said that not a single worker escaped death or injury. Beyond the fact that a large quantity of trinitrotoluol blew up nothing was known of the explosion or its cause.

Officials said that an inquiry will be launched immediately but that there is little hope of learning much about the blast.

METHODISTS WORKING THRU
25,000 CHURCHES

The National War Council of the Methodist Episcopal Church cooperates with the Federal Council of the Churches and the Y. M. C. A., in order that there will be no duplication of effort. Through its 25,000 churches in the United States war work teams have been organized that stand ready to cooperate with the Government in all war service.

The Rev. John C. Benson, executive secretary of the National War Council of the Methodist Episcopal Church, stated that the fundamental aims of the council were twofold. "First," he said, "we interpret Methodism to the Government; that is, we show the Government by actual accomplishment what Methodism does patriotically. For instance, when the call came for field glasses this appeal was emphasized to our 25,000 churches, who responded by forwarding field glasses to the Navy Department. Secondly, we interpret the Government to Methodism, by explaining the war problems of the Government to our people, and by distributing all information helpful to the Government to help win the war. The aim of Methodism is not to organize new agencies but to strengthen those already existing, that they may be most efficient."

In the communities adjacent to the camps and cantonments special women workers have been placed on duty to direct the welfare work among the young women of the community where the need is recognized. Every Methodist church will hold a patriotic

RUSSEL FLEGAL
HAS BEEN GASSED

H. J. Flegal received a letter at noon today from his son Russell Flegal, who is a member of Co. 74, Sixth Regiment, United States Marines, with the American Expeditionary Forces in France, which conveyed the intelligence that he was a patient in Base Hospital No. 15 suffering from the effects of having been gassed.

No details of the affair is given further than that the attack occurred after his company had served their time in the front line trenches and had been relieved and gone back to the third line.

He said he was suffering from burns and had got a little of the gas in his lungs, but that his condition was satisfactory and there was no occasion for undue worry or alarm. However, in this attack every member of his company suffered and many of them paid the extreme penalty.

The letter was written on April 26th after his condition was such as to allow him to write and it is likely the casualties were the result of the heavy gas attack against the Marines along about April 1st.

Some time during the month of May it which time war problems will be discussed and the church's service flag will be unveiled.

WOMEN'S COUNCIL
NATIONAL DEFENSE
HOLDS SESSION

Mrs. Roland D. Swoope, county chairman of the Woman's Council of National Defense of Clearfield county entertained the chairman and officers of the Woman's Liberty Loan committee of Clearfield county at luncheon at The Dinning hotel yesterday.

The luncheon was served in the private dining room of the hotel which manager and Mrs. McGinnis had decorated in a patriotic manner most attractively. Little paper baskets twined with red, white and blue and filled with candies were the souvenirs at each place.

Following the luncheon a business meeting was held. Mrs. Herbert A. Moore, of DuBois, county chairman of the Woman's Liberty Loan committee, presided and enthusiastic reports of the success of the Women's solicitation for the Third Liberty Loan were made.

The final total of subscriptions received as the result of their efforts was $1,819,500.

The women were highly complimentary upon the splendid work their solicitors were doing and the ardent patriotic spirit in which the work was done.

Those present were: Mrs. H. A. Moore, Mrs. George A. Long and Miss Louise Weber, of DuBois; Mrs. R. H. Summerville, of Winburne; Mrs. Brown, of Osceola; Mrs. Fletcher, of Mahaffey; Mrs. Hagerty, of Coalport; Mrs. George Zeigler of Philipsburg; Mrs. Maxwell of Morrisdale; Mrs. Roland D. Swoope; Mrs. J. L. Cutlin and Miss Ida Robinson of Curwensville and Mrs. Singleton Bell of this city.

AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

This is the opening of the great Red Cross drive for a hundred million dollars, and the services at the Presbyterian church tomorrow will be on the Red Cross. In the morning the pastor will preach a sermon on "The greatest mother in the world," and in the evening one of the aged speakers from abroad will deliver the address. Special music has been prepared for both services. You are cordially invited.

BISHOP McDOWELL NOTED PREACHER

Bishop McDowell who preaches at Trinity Methodist church, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock is one of the most noted and most popular men before the public today. His is a finished orator and delivered a lecture on "Preaching" at Yale university last year. He will lecture at the university of Pittsburgh next week. Clearfield people should take advantage of tomorrow's opportunity to hear this great preacher.

Mrs. Clyde Boigar and children of Moshanen arrived yesterday to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Beightol of Merrill street.

Mrs. Arch Davidson and little daughter of Curwensville were among the out of town shoppers here yesterday.

Mrs. Clayton McNaull of Curwensville was shopping in our city today.

BODY OF BROOKVILLE
LAD FOUND IN BARN

A mysterious disappearance that has caused widespread excitement in Brookville and all over this section was partially solved yesterday just before noon when the dead body of Harry Henschel, aged ten years, was found concealed in a barn on the rear of the Henschel lot. The discovery was made at 11:45 o'clock by the father of the dead lad and his uncle. These two had been engaged in a diligent search since the young lad disappeared on Sunday and looked into the trunk as a last resort. The hatches of the trunk were fastened from the outside and there is every indication that the boy had been foully dealt with and the remains concealed in the trunk. The hair was matted and wet and the supposition is that he was first drowned and then the body carried to the barn, where it was concealed. The fact that the hatches of the trunk were fastened from the outside had led numerous searchers to pass it by during the past five days. The disappearance of the lad had caused great excitement and plans had been made in Brookville to close all stores yesterday afternoon and inaugurate a general search.

The finding of the body under the circumstances narrated above only serves to deepen the mystery in regard to the cause of the boy's death. A woman stated that she saw two boys, one chasing the other, go across her backyard on Sunday afternoon, and she believes that the one boy was Harry Henschel. This was the last seen of the lad until his body was discovered in the trunk.

BATTLE HEROES TO ADDRESS MEETINGS
HERE TOMORROW

Chairman Snyder of the Clearfield Chapter American Red Cross has arranged a series of three meetings for tomorrow to be held at the High School, Trinity Methodist church and the Presbyterian church.

The speakers for these meetings will be men who have seen what a great need the Red Cross is meeting and overcoming in the war-torn countries overseas.

Charles E. Beury, one of the speakers has been over there for some time and will give the three audiences first hand information as to what the conditions are and what is being done by the Red Cross to better the conditions of the homeless French and Italians and in caring for the wounded of both armies.

Lieut. Hearst, who is the son of the Premier of Quebec is an aviator of note and has seen several years actual service in the Canadian Flying corps on the various battle fronts.

Both these men are in a position to tell the needs of the Red Cross and will put the bare facts right up to the three audiences.

The schedule of the meetings follows:

High School auditorium 3 p. m.

Trinity Methodist church at 7:30.

Presbyterian church at 7:30.

This will give everyone an opportunity to hear these men with their vital message.

It is expected that the speakers' schedule will be arranged so there will be no long waits during the evening meetings. While one of the men is speaking at one place the other will be speaking at another so that there will be no interruption excepting the short time necessary to switch the men.

Mrs. Roland D. Swoope and daughter Miss Mary Swoope of Curwensville were shopping in our stores today.

SLATE MAKING IS UNFAIR TO MANY CANDIDATES

As evidence that politics is just a little warmer than was at first supposed, thousands of cards have been circulated throughout the county during the last two days on which is a prepared slate or voter's guide reading as follows:

"Take this with you to the booth and vote for the straight Republicans below and you will not endorse the Brumbaugh, Vore Patton gang."

The ticket is headed by Mr. Sprout for governor and goes down through the list of state officers until congressman is reached where endorsement is given to Jones of Bradford county. Pidgeon of Houtzdale, Miller of Penn Township and Reay of DuBois are selected as legislators and Sweeney for county chairman.

Stewart Objects
Candidate C. Albert Stewart for the office of county chairman feels that an injustice has been done him by the parties responsible for getting out the card. The following statement was authorized by him when he was shown the card:

"This action was anticipated and is not in the least discouraging because the day is past when voters pay any heed to such methods but I consider it unfortunate that any members of the party should attempt in such a manner to inject partisan politics into the campaign at this time. While no mention is made of my name, there being only two candidates, the implication is that I am a Brumbaugh-Vore-Patton man. Those who know me personally throughout the county and those who have closely followed the political editorials written by me know that I have taken no part in factional politics and cannot be tainted up by fact or implication with any so called gang. Furthermore I have steadfastly refused to allow my name to be used in the making of any slate or in combination with any candidate or candidates. My candidacy is in the hands of the individual electorate and I will cheerfully abide by their decision. If elected, I want the support and good will of every Republican in the county and will solicit the counsel and advice of Republican leaders all over the county including those who oppose me at this time."

RED CROSS MEN
MAP OUT PLANS

The members of the Soliciting Committee for next week's Second Red Cross War Fund drive met at Y. M. C. A. last evening and mapped out their plans for Monday and Tuesday's whirlwind campaign to raise Clearfield's share of the second one hundred millions to be raised.

The town has been subdivided and enough teams provided to guarantee a short snappy campaign, the purpose being to get the huge task over and done with in record breaking time.

Everybody is expected to contribute at least one day's pay to this worthy cause. The boys over there for whose welfare the money is being raised are giving every day to their task and are willing to give their very lives if necessary. What is the most extreme sacrifice we can make over here compared with that.

Make no excuse but contribute generously when the committee sees you next week. There must be no ladders now.

THAT RED CROSS PARADE TONIGHT

Every Clearfield citizen, eligible to do so, should participate in tonight's Red Cross parade. If you can possibly do so you should appear in the line-up, and you will very justly be styled a slacker if you fail to march on this occasion.

No American can be "too proud" to make this public display of his or her Americanism and demonstrate thereby that we are with our boys over there to the last man and the last dollar, if necessary. No sacrifice is too great for our brave boys bearing the battle's brunt on the war-torn battlefields of France and Belgium, surely in appreciation of this fact all our people will show their colors by parading tonight. It is not much of a sacrifice, but it is necessary here and now.

VERY LITTLE ACTIVITY ON BATTLE
FRONTS; AMERICAN AIRFIGHTER WINS

BY ROBERT J. BENDER
Washington, May 18.—"America must prepare for further great sacrifices to meet the demands of the gigantic effort now assuming definite shape in the war government to frustrate the Teutonic decision to win the war."

This will be the message of President Wilson tonight when he opens the Red Cross drive in New York. With the serious situation facing all fronts as Germany pursues her ruthless persecution of conquered people in Russia and the Balkans, America is preparing for a mighty stroke before the close of the year. This great participation demands great sacrifices at home. The President will undoubtedly tell of the great preparations and at the same time assure that the nation stands ready to listen to honest professions of peace. Millions of dollars in advance contracts for all kinds of war needs are to be let in preparation for the great army of men expected to be in France before another twelve months. The President left Washington at ten o'clock yesterday morning for New York. He conferred with Col. House and laid before him the points to be covered in his expected discussion of international affairs.

Paris, May 18.—Violent artillery firing north and south of the Avre was reported by the French war office today. German raids failed north of Massiges and Four De Paris.

London, May 18.—There was considerable mutual artillery firing between Givenchy and Robecq last night, General Haig reported today. Hostile artillery was active in the Lens, Hazebrouck and Ypres sectors.

Washington, May 18.—Taking the air while awaiting the arrival of a French general with decorations for American flyers, Captain Peterson sent two German planes to destruction within a minute on May 16, today's official communique said. The machine came down in flames and the other crumpled as it fell.

The statement follows: "Section A—in Lorraine. Patrols were active and there was again an increase in the artillery fire. Otherwise the day was quiet at all points occupied by our troops. Section B—Particulars concerning the bringing down of hostile airplanes at noon on May 16, previously reported when aviators were awaiting for a French general who was coming to confer decorations are as follows:

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson at their home in Akron, Ohio, a daughter, Mrs. Wilson was formerly Miss Hazel Durt of this city. Mrs. Dorsey Bailey of Curwensville was shopping in our city today. J. N. Smith of Ironton, attended to business in town yesterday.

While waiting Captain Peterson ascended and encountered two German planes and shot down both within one minute, firing 60 shots at the first and 15 at the second. The first burst into flames before hitting the ground and the wings of the second were seen to crumple as they fell to earth. No details concerning a third hostile plane were received. The airplane seen to fall within our lines north of Toul was probably shot down by hostile anti-aircraft guns.

CARNIVAL CLOSES TONIGHT

The carnival closes tonight. Don't miss the final opportunity of looking it over. They have a nice clean show and you will assist a worthy cause by your patronage.

Following the big parade go with the crowd to the carnival grounds. Little recreation and innocent amusement is necessary for all.

100 PLANES DESTROYED

Rome, May 18.—The Allies' last 30 days have destroyed more than 100 enemy airplanes on the Italian front, it was officially announced today.

Mr. and Mrs. Ord Orcutt of Gramplan, were Clearfield business visitors today.

SNEAK THIEF MAKES HAUL

A sneak thief dropped into John W. Eberts feed mill in the alley just off Walnut street and between Second and Third streets at the noon hour yesterday and got away with more than $200. Only about $90 of the haul was in currency, however, the balance being checks. The thief made good his getaway without suspicion. Nothing was found to indicate that he had anything to do with the theft and he was released after being questioned as to his whereabouts at the noon hour.

Washington, May 18.—Thirty-nine casualties were reported in the list made public today. It includes 31 killed in action, 3 deaths from wounds, 5 wounded severely, 5 wounded slightly, 17 missing in action and 2 prisoners not previously reported missing. Heading the list was the name of Major Alexander Rasmussen, of Shewood, Ore.

Don't Fail to Hear Mr. Beury and Lieut. Hearst at High School Auditorium Tomorrow Afternoon or in the Trinity Methodist or Presbyterian Churches Tomorrow Evening

"A great net of mercy drawn through an ocean of unspeakable pain"

"I'm afraid that's all I can spare"

You're a regular, red-blooded, true-blue American. You love your country. You love that flapping, snapping old flag. Your heart thumps hard when the troops tramp by. You're loyal---100%!

You intend to---you want to---help win the war in a hurry.

"Sacrifice? Sure," you've been thinking. "Just you wait till they really need it." And you've honestly thought you meant that too.

But---look yourself in the eye, now, and search up and down inside of your heart---did you mean it? Did you really mean "sacrifice"?

Listen: You feel poor. This third Liberty Loan, the high prices, the Income Tax---you've done your bit. You feel that you've given all you can spare.

What? Then what did you mean? What's that you said about loving your country? What did you think the word "sacrifice" means?

Surely you didn't mean, did you, to give only what you can spare?

What about our boys who are giving their lives in the trenches? Are they giving only what they can "spare"?

How about those mothers and little "kiddies" in the shell-wrecked towns of that war-swept hell:---hungry---ragged---sobbing---alone? Giving up their homes, their husbands, their fathers.

While we---over here with our fun and our comforts---we hold up our heads and feel patriotic because we have given---what? Some loose bills off the top of our roll. "We've given all we can spare!"

Come, come! Let's quit fooling ourselves. Let us learn what "sacrifice" means. Let us give more than we can spare---let us "give till the heart says stop."

Every cent of every dollar received for the Red Cross War Fund goes for War Relief.

The American Red Cross is the largest and most efficient organization for the relief of suffering that the world has ever seen.

It is made up almost entirely of volunteer workers, the higher executives being without exception men accustomed to large affairs who are in almost all cases giving their services without pay.

It is supported entirely by its membership fees and by voluntary contributions.

It is today bringing relief to suffering humanity, both military and civilian in every War torn Allied country.

It plans tomorrow to help in the work of restoration throughout the world.

It feeds and clothes entire populations in times of great calamity.

It is there to help your soldier boy in his time of need.

With its thousands of workers, its tremendous stores and smooth running transportation facilities, it is serving as America's advance guard---and thus helping to win the war.

Congress authorizes it.

President Wilson heads it.

The War Department audits its accounts.

Your Army your Navy and your Allies enthusiastically endorse it.

Twenty-two million Americans have joined it.

Twelve Tire Tests No. 3

Traction-Surface

A non-skid tread, made up of comparatively small projections, cannot resist wear so well as a tire having a broad, flat traction-surface.

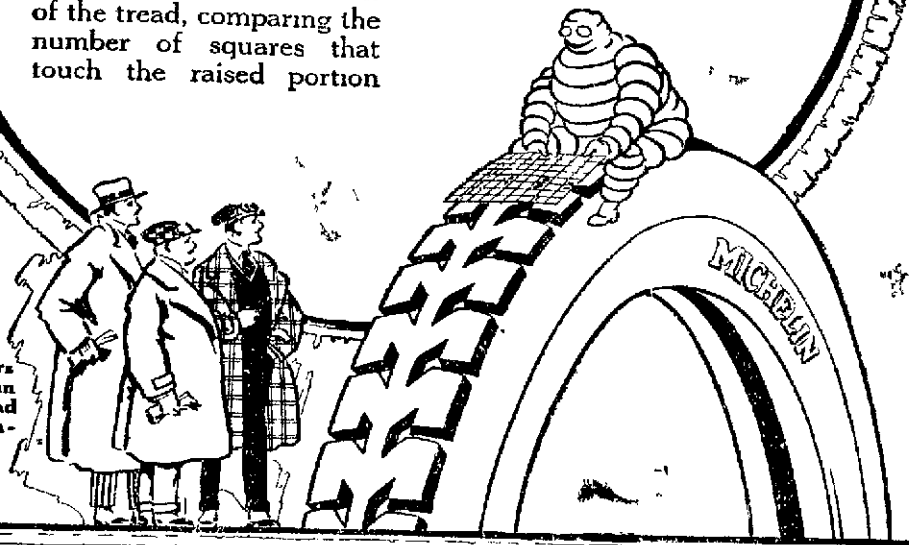

In considering the merits of various non-skids, determine how large a surface comes in actual contact with the road.

To do this, lay a piece of wire screen over one unit of the tread, comparing the number of squares that touch the raised portion with the number that cover the portion not raised.

In the Michelin Universal, for example, three-quarters of the entire non-skid tread comes in contact with the road, thus forming a broad, flat traction-surface that means extra service.

Yet Michelin Tires are not high priced.

PITTMAN—GUNNERSON

Private Walter I. Pittman of Du Bois, Pa., and Miss Olga I. Gunnerson of Ridgway, Pa., were married at the Presbyterian manse by Dr. J. C. Reeve on Tuesday, May 14th. Private Pittman was home on a brief furlough and embraced the opportunity as many of our soldiers are doing now before leaving for France. Mr. W. H. Napp, a friend of the young couple, acted as witness to the ceremony. Our heartiest congratulations and best wishes follow this happy couple. We pray God save our splendid men, send them home again.

An Announcement by The Miller Rubber Co.

ONLY one out of twenty-five applicants at the factory meets Miller standards. Uniform Tires can come in no other way than by rigid exactions—unwavering policies. Just so careful are we in choosing Miller Dealers. We want only those who reflect our ideals here. They must be capable of giving you exceptional service—just as Miller Tires are exceptional.

Uniform Tires—Geared-to-the-Road
Tires must vary as the men who build them vary. So uniform tires can be built by uniform men only. We solved this problem by training crack squads of tire builders. Each must meet exacting standards.
One Motorist in Fifty
Tires so uniform can never be produced where quantity output rules. Picked men are rare. If you multiply workmen you increase variables. So our production is necessarily limited. Only about one motorist in fifty can obtain Miller Tires this year.
If you want to be sure of securing Uniform Tires get a pair at once. Don't put it off. Our limited output compels us to limit a dealer's allotment each month.

And the tires this champion regiment builds—99 out of 100—wear the same under like conditions. Less than 1% ever needs adjustment.

PENTECOSTAL SERVICES AT THE LUTHERAN CHURCH

At the morning service at the English Lutheran Church, on Sunday, May 19th, the pastor will preach a special pentecostal sermon setting forth the office and work of the Holy Spirit. The choir will also furnish a special number for the occasion. Every member should be present, and all others who can are invited.
There will be no service in the Lutheran Church in the evening. The pastor and people will join with the Presbyterian and Methodists in the Red Cross services. Every person who is well enough and possibly can, should make an effort to hear the men sent here, either at the High School in the afternoon, or at the Trinity M. E. or the Presbyterian church in the evening.

DIED AT THE HOSPITAL

George Passmore, a resident of the Montgomery neighborhood, who had been seriously ill for some time passed away at the Clearfield hospital early yesterday morning. His funeral will occur Sunday afternoon. He was a member of the L. O. O. M. and that organization will attend the funeral.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lesson 7—Second Quarter, May 19, 1918.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES

Text of the Lesson, Mark 11:1-33—Memory Verse, Mark 11:9—Golden Text, Matt. 28:18—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

I cannot see any connection between this lesson and the title the committee have given to it, "Jesus Exercising Kingly Authority." for the day of the so-called triumphal entry was to him a day of weeping because of what he knew would come upon Jerusalem because of their rejection of him. What I do see is that as truly and literally as he fulfilled Zech. 9:9 so shall he fulfill Zech. 9:10, and then, but not till then, will he exercise Kingly authority. The story of Zaccheus, and of the anointing at Bethany, comes in between our last lesson and this one, and tells us of the salvation of a rich man, and of the beautifully simple faith and whole-hearted devotion of Mary of Bethany, and how the Lord provides an opportunity for those who seek one and are ready for it.

The story of the ass' colt shows how literally Scripture has been and will be fulfilled, and in what simple ways events long foretold are brought to pass in the fullness of time. The names of the two disciples are not given, for they were not so important as the colt on which the Messiah was to ride; but it is important to notice that they found the colt just as he had said they would, and it was all to fulfill Scriptures (vs. 4; Luke 19:32; Matt. 21:4, 5). Only in a seeming and transient way was it in any sense a triumphal entry as they cried his praises (vs. 7-10), for see in Luke 19:41-44, how he wept and why; and then see in Matt. 23:37-39, that the time will come when they shall say in reality, "Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord."

As he entered Jerusalem all the city was moved, saying "Who is this?" reminding us of the same question in Isa. 63:1; Jer. 30:21; and of the question of the disciples when he stilled the storm, "What manner of man is this that even the wind and the sea obey him?" (Mark 5:4). When we think of the millions of suffering ones today because of this awful war, and how he could heal them all and make wars to cease, how we should cry, Come, Lord Jesus!

He entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple, and the blind and the lame came to him and he healed them, and the children cried, "Hosanna to the Son of David." The chief priests and scribes were displeased, but he reminded them of Ps. 8:2, and left them, and at eventide went out into Bethany with the twelve, and lodged there (vs. 14, and Matt. 21:10-17).

In the morning as they returned to the city he was hungry, and coming to a fig tree which had plenty of leaves but no fruit, he said to it "No man eat fruit of thee hereafter forever, or literally unto the age (vs. 12-14). In Joel 1:7, he calls Israel his vine and his fig tree, and when he comes again that vine and fig tree shall bear much fruit according to Isa. 27:6.

Having entered the temple again, he cleansed it, as he had done at the beginning of his ministry (Jno. 2:13-17), and told them that they had made his house of prayer a den of thieves; and when it was evening he went out of the city again. In the day time he was teaching in the temple, and at night he went out and abode in the mount that is called the Mount of Olives (vs. 15-19; Luke 21:37, 38), and the people were attentive to hear him. Thus he spent the last week of his ministry, each day bringing him nearer to his great agony, but wholly forgetful of himself he taught them all that he could, as they were able to bear it with their awakened minds.

The next morning as they entered the city Peter called his attention to the fig tree which had withered away, and then he said some of his most wonderful words, which none of us seem fully to comprehend or act upon. Consider these words, "Have faith in God—whosoever shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass, he shall have whatsoever he saith. What things soever ye desire when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them." Twice in this connection he said, "I say unto you." The only conditions here seem to be that we forgive every one, have faith in God, and doubt not in our hearts.

In John 14:13, 14, the conditions seem to be that we ask in his name, and that the Father may be glorified in him, which I understand to mean that we ask only on his business and never for any selfish ends. In I John 3:22 we read that "Whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight." There is surely a standard here that we should aim to measure up to, that we may glorify him by showing to others the riches of his grace at our disposal. (Lesson verses 20-26).

The right attitude seems to be that being redeemed and made his very own by his precious blood, we should be always, unreservedly and absolutely wholly for his pleasure—and this is most reasonable that he should be able to do what he will with his own. Lesson verses 27-33 teach us that not all questions of unbelievers need to be answered, and sometimes one question may be met by another.

James F. Turner of DuBois, candidate for member of the Democratic State Committee, was in Clearfield today in the interest of his candidacy.

If You Have Any Use for Varnish—for a pale, transparent, hard-drying finish that is not affected by salt or fresh water, by sun, shine or snow—

Cosmolac is more than a varnish. It is a tough, elastic covering for interior or outdoor use with qualities of endurance unapproached by ordinary varnishes.

Cosmolac dries overnight to a rich, permanent lustre, and can be rubbed down to a dull finish if required. Keep a can on the shelf at all times.
